4.26.07.2016 PRESENTATION BY CLLR SIMON GREAVES LEADER OF BASSETLAW DISTRICT COUNCIL

Simon Greaves was welcomed to the meeting by the Chairman, and referred to as the first leader in modern history to address the parish Council at an ordinary meeting.

Simon gave his presentation which explained the reasons and rationale behind the bid to join the Sheffield City Region as a full member, but maintaining links with the Nottinghamshire County Council and the North Midlands albeit there was no present prospect of a region deal by the North Midlands grouping.

A number of questions were put to Simon with answers given in the most part. In particular voting rights for the New Executive Mayor once full membership rights were secured.

He also agreed to seek responses to question put over the South Harworth site, Fracking and Enforcement Action at the Clay Pigeon Site.

The Chairman thanked Simon Greaves for his attendance and openness. A photograph was taken for prosperity.

A letter of thanks would be sent to BDC thanking Simon for his interaction.

5.26.07.2016 STYRRUP VILLAGE HALL

Quotations for the construction and installation of height restriction and swing gate barriers to the Styrrup Village Hall Car park were reviewed and it was agreed to enter into a contract with Victoria Fabrications of Chesterfield in the sum of £1849 plus VAT. Suited padlocks were not included. These would be sourced independently. The next nearest quote was over £1000 more expensive. Clerk to place the order.

A satisfactory solution had now been reached over the new floor coverings to the VH Toilets and the invoice settled.

6.26.07.2016 STREET SWEEPER / HANDYMAN REPORT

The work undertaken at Oldcotes Village Hall was satisfactory and the inclusion of the car park in the fortnightly visit was requested.

All payments were up to date including the payment of wages and PAYE.

11.26.07.2016 SPEEDING TRAFFIC ON MAIN STREET, OLDCOTES

A meeting involving the County Councillor, local residents and Parish Councillors had taken place earlier in the day, NCC and VIA officials confirming that the NCC no longer installs traffic calming measures and Main Street, Oldcotes would not have met previous criteria anyway. The matter was to be left "Sine Die"

The Clerk would enquire of Harthill Parish Council how they had achieved the installation of 30MPH signs on lamp posts in the Village.

12.26.07.2016 MEMBERS ITEMS

An acknowledgement but no action by the BDC had yet occurred regarding the erection of a 2m+ fence to the front and side of 25 Pagdin Drive, Styrrup, Cllr Barry Bowles agreed to pursue this matter with Development Control.

Cllr Browne reported the replacement of the Street light outside Aspen House..

NCC had denied responsibility for the bridge decking causing the continual pot hole on the Serlby Road Motorway Bridge, and the sharp edges on the paintwork on the bridge hand rails which were the responsibility of the Highways Agency. NCC with VIA highways would continue to fill the pot hole. Both agencies would be contacted to deal with their responsibilities.
