4.      Chairman's Report

Reviewing the last twelve months, the Chairman, Cllr Wall, acknowledged it had been another challenging year and the continuing lack of progress on certain long outstanding matters was a cause of considerable frustration. On the plus side, the Parish Council was proud to have completed the commission of the new War Memorial, which had been placed outside Lady Margaret Hall. The bespoke stone plaque bearing the names of all the fallen from the two Parishes had been made possible with generous funding assistance from Nottinghamshire Community Commemoration Fund 2014-2018, County Councillor Kevin Greaves and District Councillor Kevin Dukes. It had been hoped to arrange something of a community event, incorporating an official unveiling ceremony, but sadly it had not proved possible to arrange this to date. It was hoped this could take place during the next year, to coincide with the War Memorial being re-sited when refurbishment of Lady Margaret Hall is completed.

The Chair thanked the Clerk, W Woodcock, for her input and support over the past twelve months.
